FOREWORD

Preparing an annual is not an easy task, in spite of the fact that it is a pleasant one. To include everything of interest and importance to each individual in Landis High School is, obviously, impossible. We have included those things which we believe are and will remain of greatest interest to most readers.

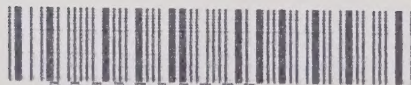

If, in years to come, you can, by turning through the pages of this book, relive your joyous high school days, we, the YELLOW JACKET STAFF, will feel amply rewarded for the hours spent on planning, organizing, selecting, and editing the material.

"LOOKING BACKWARD AND FORWARD"

By: CAROLYN MORETZ

After twelve long years of striving
And maybe more for some
Part of our goal at last is achieved
Graduation here we come

This year has been our greatest
We truthfully thrill to recall
Some amusing little incidents
We dearly love them all

While adding up our units
We wondered about our fate
What if we didn't qualify
With points to graduate!

When we received our class rings
Excitement surrounded the atmosphere
We were proud we'd met the standards
And our rings at last were here.

We had our little difficulties
About using our lockers and such
But those trifling little problems
Didn't amount to very much.

We crammed for examinations
We really had quite a time
But we knew for the future
We'd need a brilliant Mind.

This year has gone so rapidly
It just whizzed by so fast
For inspiration in the future
We'll rely upon the past.

CLASS PROPHECY

One day in the year 1959 four members of the class of '49 of Landis High School met on the Square in Landis. Recalling old memories and wondering about our beloved classmates, we decided to make a tour of the world and find out what they were doing. As we were leaving Landis we decided to stop in at the Landis Bank to say good-bye to Margie Allman, where she is a typist.

Starting on our tour we headed for China Grove, where we found Iona Potts teaching at the China Grove University and going through the College we also found Hilda Edwards teaching Health and Physical Ed. After talking with the two for a while we decided to start our journey again and headed for Durham, N. C.

As we came through, sweet organ music drew us to the Duke University Chapel where we found none other than our Class Musician, Monica Brown. We decided to visit the Duke University Hospital where Betty Freeze is head nurse with Nancy Sullivan as her assistant.

Our next city was Raleigh, where we visited State College, and as we walked over the campus we found Tommy Taylor. Talking to him we learned that he was a Professor of Agriculture, still shooting the breeze. We learned that their famous Football Coach was our one and only Billy Reid Overcash.

The next stop on our tour was Richmond, Virginia, and as we were tired from traveling, we decided to go window shopping. Walking down the street we saw an attractive sign saying, "SCRUB YOUR GOURD BEAUTY SALOON", owned and operated by Betty Jo Sheeks, who is specializing in the new hair style "PIN IT UP BEFORE IT FALLS".

Walking farther down the street we passed Beaver's Grocery. Thinking that the name seemed familiar we entered and learned that its owner was Rachel Beaver, with her slogan being "EVERYTHING YOU LIKE AND NOTHING YOU WANT". As we were talking, who did we see walk in the store but Betty Jean Overcash, and as she entered our little group we learned that she was keeping books for Rachel.

After arriving in Washington, we decided to visit the Art Gallery where we were not so surprised to find the famous painting "THE MONEY ROLLS" by Oscar Beaver.

Leaving the Art Gallery we visited the office of Mary Helen Yost who is now National President of "THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS of AMERICA". Visiting another we found Clyde Patterson who is President of the "NO BREAK GLASS COMPANY."

Now that we had reached New York, Joe Allman decided to stop in and look over his business. He is owner of "THE LOOK AT THEM AND LIKE THEM MODELING AGENCY". His star models being Irene McCool, Doris Swink, Hazel Wilhelm and Wilma Upright.

As we were waiting to board our ship we picked up the newspaper, "THE NEW YORK STAB" edited by Bill Burgess. Reading it we found a poem entitled "THE REDHEAD" written by our class poet, Carolyn Moretz.

Reading still further we find written in large letters "MALVENIA FOUTZ FIRST PLACE WINNER IN THE WORLD'S GREATEST DEBATING CONTEST", subject, "IT AIN'T FAIR".

CLASS PROPHECY

Glancing at the right hand corner of the front page again we see in big letters, "REECE PAGE HAS JUST BEEN VOTED BY ALL GOOD LOOKING WOMEN", as "1959's GREATEST LOVER OF ALL TIMES".

After leaving New York we visited Paris, France, where we found Curtis Helms leading his famous dance band, "THE SWING AND SWAY", with Ruth Abernathy and Hoyt Rutledge as guest soloist. They were starring at the "PROP UP THEATRE".

Having three girls on this tour who liked perfume, especially from Paris, we visited the nearby Perfume Factory which was owned and operated by Levonda Jordon and Barbara McDaniels. As we talked, we learned their favorite was "DRAG THEM BACK ALIVE" which we decided to buy.

During our tour of Switzerland we attended an ice festival where we found our old roller skating friends Helen Stewart, Lucretia Corriher, and Betty Jo Hill who have become famous ice skaters.

Now as we headed for Germany where we visited the Army base at Nurenburg, we find Peggy Eller who is now an army nurse stationed with her husband General Bill Goodnight. Now that it was time to leave we debated on how to travel. It was finally decided to travel by plane.

After we were on the plane and we thought we were comfortable, we were suddenly stunned to find ourselves riding upside down and as we got to normal we learned from our hostess Doris Wilkinson that our daring young pilot was Hugh Parks.

We were finally back in the good old U. S. but not through with our journey and with our visit to all our classmates, so our next stop was to visit Martha Kimball's "INTERIOR DECORATING SCHOOL" here in San Francisco.

From San Francisco we headed for Hollywood where we find at the M. G. M. Studio, Hilda Huffman and Ray Von Yow taking the place of Betty Hutton and "Red" Skelton.

On with our journey to Seattle, Washington where we noticed a huge theatre called "MAD AND GLAD HOUSE" as we entered to look it over we saw none other than Kenneth Sloop who is the owner and operator.

Another discussion on how to travel came up and we decided to go by bus and we got aboard to find as our driver, Vivian Sechler and after talking to her for awhile we learned that the owner of the "ONE ACCIDENT BUS COMPANY" was the one and only Homer Brown who had for his motto "BOARD AT YOUR OWN RISK".

As we arrived in Salt Lake City, Murphy decided to stop in and see that her "ALL STAR BASKETBALL TEAM" was sticking to their motto: "PLAY FOR US TO WIN AND THEM TO LOSE".

After it was decided that the team was o. k. we headed for Denver, Colorado to stop in and see how Faynell Frieze was doing with her "LONELY HEARTS CLUB".

As we left Denver we boarded the "ROBERT'S ROCKET TRAIN", owned and operated by Jerry Roberts we headed for Texas and after getting along the way in Texas, we noticed a huge ranch owned by Frank Patterson and William Corriher called the "P. C. RANCH". Going still further we saw an adjoining ranch called the "ROCKING V." owned by Martha Vinson.

CLASS PROPHECY

As we arrived in Little Rock, Arkansas we began to feel hungry and noticed a small cafe, so we stopped to eat. As we entered we saw, the one and only Clam Cavin who we learned was "CHIEF COOK" and that the cafe was one of "BUTT'S CHAIN OF CAFES".

After we had eaten the girls decided to visit the "SUNSHINE CURL SALOON" operated by Dorothy Sells, Betty Jean Scercy and Elsie McDuffie their specialty being the "NO-STINK PERMANENT WAVE". After our visit with the girls we decided it was time to travel again and headed for St. Louis.

On our way, as we came through Memphis we noticed a "BILLIARD HALL" called "OUR FAVORITE HANGOUT" owned by Clarence Stewart and as we arrived in St. Louis we again noticed a huge sign saying "HOTEL ROSEMAN" and were welcomed as we entered by the owner and operator C. D. Roseman.

While we were talking we inquired about entertainment and learned that the "WORLD FAIR" was in progress.

The next day we arose early and started for the fair in time for the judging of beautiful women which was done by Joe Corriher and Elmer Goodman. As we left the judges we bumped into Gary Miller who told us he was managing the lights for the Fair.

When we went back to the hotel it was suggested that we listen to the radio and who did we hear taking the place of Jack Benny on C.B.S.? Our one and only Jack Goodnight starring on "THE PROGRAM FOR NETWITS"!

We arose early the next morning and headed for Chicago and as we entered we bumped into Madge Roseman who was traveling around looking for the right man. Again we boarded our famous plane and headed for Jacksonville to visit Lt. Rachel Correll who is stationed there as a Wave.

Atlanta here we come was our next suggestion and we did go to find Nancy Mills owner and operator of a chain of stores called "MILL'S 3 and 9". As we talked we learned she had as her very efficient helpers Fannie Deal and Colleen Bebbber.

Homeward bound, as we drove down main street of Landis we saw Richard Carlisle still wandering around the Corriher Mills.

Since Landis has one of the most modern schools of the South, we decided to visit it. As we entered we noticed that MR. McCREARY'S efficient secretary was Anna Catherine Linn and her main job was to keep records of all people who skipped classes. As we left the school building Jean crossed the street to resume her work at her "TYPING SCHOOL" and her slogan is: "DON'T PICK OUT THE KEYS; TYPE IT RIGHT".

CLASS HISTORY

In 1937 we Seniors of '49 entered school for the first time. Our first seven years of school were what we considered boring because people in higher grades seemed to do as they pleased while we were always being bossed around. We finally struggled through to the eighth grade and were overjoyed when we learned that we could change classes.

In '45 we "Green Freshmen" entered High School not understanding the method the other High School students used to get to class on time. We were so glad that after eight years we could elect officers for our class and after much thought we elected the following: President Doris Dorton, Vice-President Oscar Beaver, Secretary and Treasurer Doris Swink. Our advisors were Miss Geneva Goodman, Mrs. H. S. Leafe, Miss Mary Louise Moore and Miss Lillian Barrier.

The year of '46 came in a rush with all the students trying to succeed. Then came the thrill of electing new officers for the new year. They came as following: President Oscar Beaver, Vice-President Clarence Stewart, Jr.; Secretary David Cavin, Treasurer Peggy Eller, Reporter Kenneth Sloop. Our advisors were Miss Marie Bolick and Miss La Monna Gattis. With the help of our advisors we were successful with a square dance at Christmas.

This year, as you have probably guessed, we were jolly Juniors. The first great event of the year was the Halloween Play and Carnival which we sponsored. Our Queen, Miss Margaret Bragg and King, Mr. David Cavin won first place. The Carnival and Play was a great success due to the help of our director Miss Patsy McCombs. Then came the Junior Play of which Mrs. H. S. Leafe was director. Mrs. Leafe and Miss McCombs were also our class advisors. The officers of our Junior class were: President Oscar Beaver, Vice-President Helen Stewart, Secretary Hoyt Rutledge and Treasurer Kenneth Sloop.

Due to the fact that the Juniors are always expected to give the Seniors a banquet in the spring, we followed the same method. It took plenty of hard work and guidance to raise enough money to pay for this but we finally did get enough and had some left over (believe it or not). A few weeks later we were honored with a prom given by the Seniors.

1948 found us coming back for the final year. At last we were Seniors, those dignified Seniors, although not very dignified. This year our officers are as following: President Reece Page, Vice-President Betty Freeze, Secretary Doris Swink and Treasurer Kenneth Sloop.

This year our last one and exalting year from which we were trying to achieve everything possible. First, we had a skating party at Mooresville which started the year off with a bang. (Everyone banging on the floor.) We thought the day would never come when we would get our rings. At last they came and everyone was walking around with his hands out so as to draw everyone's attention to their new rings. Our grade-parents gave us a Christmas party in the library. In the spring we began to feel more like Seniors when the Junior class honored us with a banquet. A few weeks later the Juniors and Seniors were honored with a prom sponsored by the grade-parents.

Then came the Senior Play with all its practice. When the final night came we came out on top. At last came the thing we had been looking forward to for 12 years. We started practice for graduation. Some were glad to see this day come while others dreaded it very much. Well, here it is, the day has come when we must say so long. For we are now shoved into the wild—wild yonder, knowing not what is ahead of us.

Betty,

I think I've done this once before, but it looks as if I am going to have to do it again.

Betty I'll say again what I've already said. I guess I'll never forget the good times we've had together. Betty, in my opinion you are a sweet and good looking gal. You've always been good to me. I know at times I have been a regular meanie, but after it's all over with I regret being that way.

Betty do you reckon you'd ever forgive me for teasing you about Mr. P. I hope so. I think I was kind of silly maybe. I don't really think you cared anything about him did you? As for my little cat I don't think I'll ever hate her for the simple reason I have one girl who suits me fine and if you go to asking me who I think I'll go nuts.

Betty Dear,

Well, I guess we're all pretty happy now. Two exams over, three to go. After all I guess we've had it pretty easy. Haven't we??

Of all the years she known you we've had more fun this one. He had better be enjoying this year since it's our last one to be together. Have you decided on another party yet? I hope when you finish school you can find it possible to have a whole barn full of chimpanzees! See but we have had such fun in Science. Our interesting teacher especially! Always kept our attention Das good. ~~Ha~~ Remember how there's always 2 or three that won't cooperate. Our specially designated place to sleep + etc. I wish I had that part of my life to live over. "Beats" How did you like "16 Phantoms Deep". I enjoyed it the first time I saw it. Poor kid! I wish Phyllis would shut her mouth for 5 seconds.

There's not much I can say that I haven't said before in your annuals. Maybe next year I can tell you a lot about my girl friends.

Betty I certainly do miss you and Fred all the happiness two people could have together because I know how you feel about him and how you feel. I can't read his mind but I think he feels a good bit the same way. I'd love about telling me about my happy swimming party. May I go?

I could say that every minute of my life with you has been enjoyable but I'm the one who's gonna have to answer for all that so I'll close by stating I've been made mighty high powered miserable these past six years.

A friend always(?)

Maxi Steele

P.S. Really I hope our good times together will never end. So a girl I think a lot of - Best and Sincere Wishes!

Dear Betty,

well I see it's been a year from the time I wrote in your little "lie book" last year. just think of all the thing that had happened, all the trouble you have gotten me into to. Remember the little bow I wasn't able to find that Sunday on your front porch, I guess it was wrong side out and backwards after all. what about the day we went to Brown swimming pool, "I guess you brought it ~~on~~ <sup>on</sup> your self " you asked for it " I sure wish I could have found a little bottle that night.

Oh yes lets don't forget "Betty Blue" and the new car "H. H." was driving "Boy couldn't we have had fun if you hadn't had a date with Fred, and Oh why Oh why did little C --- come. Remember the little love poems and the sandwich with a pickle on top.

And last of all lets don't forget all the horse shoe game "what a partner" wasn't he just out of this world. ??? ? ? ? ?

(well I think if you was able to figure out the next page you can read my writing) and this is not a code, I think you know what its all about and I hope we have better luck <sup>together</sup> Good luck until next year. Love Ethel don't forget the at home, what I saw you wanted to go

Dear Betty,

I hardly know how to start, only to say I have really enjoyed knowing you these past two years and going with you the past year or so. We've had some mighty good times together and I don't think I will ever forget any of them. Remember the time Hugh, Marie, you, and myself went to the "Park Inn". I bet you don't want to experience anything like that again, embarrassing. No! Betty, there are many things I could say but I don't think this is the place to put them so I'll just wait and tell you some other time. You are really a sweet girl and I think a lot of you. I have had many good times with you and I hope they continue. Remember Marie's birthday supper, you and her set my place left handed and oh yes what happened to Mrs. Tur's glass of water at the banquet, could I by any chance ~~have gotten~~ the wrong one. It looks as if by Bee-Bee's brain is going to dry up before I get my space filled so I'll just say remember all the happy, sad, & thrilling moments we have spent to gether and what goes here? Fred Fairwater
